

The Native American Fish and Wildlife Society (NAFWS) is proud to announce our 2025 NAFWS National Summer Youth Practicum (SYP) has opened applications!

Are you an incoming 10th – 12th grader or do you know of someone that will be in the 10th – 12th grade that is interested in learning more about: Natural Resources? Wildlife? Recreation? Fish? Rivers? Traditional Ecological Knowledge? Conservation Law Enforcement? Tribal Lands? OR the preservation, protection, conservation, enhancement of natural resources? Then, the SYP is for YOU! Please Apply!

DATE: July 13, 2025 – July 19, 2025. Travel Days are July 13 and 19.

LOCATION: Multiple Locations through Northern CO - Colorado State University Mountain Campus, Estes Park and Denver.

COST: FREE! Food, Travel and Lodging expenses covered.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: EXTENDED to May 28, 2025 by 10 pm Mountain Time

The practicum is designed to provide Native American students (10th – 12th grade) an opportunity to gain hands-on and in-lecture experience in the interdisciplinary components of natural resource management and Indigenous knowledge. One of the goals of the Society is to educate Native American youth to understand the importance of professional natural resource management and the interconnectedness to culture, as well as encourage them to continue their education and pursue careers in the natural resource fields.

NAFWS Education Coordinator will be hosting an informational webinar on the application process and program:

Monday, April 3, 2025 at 4:00 pm Mountain Time on Zoom

For more information contact AND/OR to send complete applications to:
