FAQs

Q: What types of internships are available?

Pathways Internships are customized to fit each student's personal and professional goals. The type of work an intern performs depends on both the student's interests and the hiring needs of Tribes and the BIA. Check out the back of this brochure to see a list of common program areas!

Q: Where do internships take place?

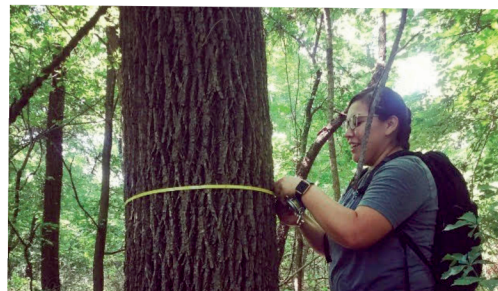

Students may intern in-person or virtually across the United States. If an internship requires in-person fieldwork or training, we pay for all student travel and housing for the duration of the internship.

Q: What are the benefits of a federal job?

The federal government has some of the best benefits in the job market. Competitive salaries, paid time off, sick leave, retirement matching, pensions, travel opportunities, paid parental leave, and flexible healthcare options are just a handful of examples.

Q: How do I apply?

Visit USAJOBS.gov and create an account. Use the search tool to find "Student Trainee" positions with BIA, or visit our website for a direct link to the application.
