

NATIONAL SUMMER YOUTH PRACTICUM

One-week practicum in Northern Colorado that focuses on natural resource professions, Tribal fish and wildlife management, professional development, and college preparedness.

ELIGIBILITY:

- 10th - 12th Grade (ages 13 - 17) Students
- Enrolled or descendant of U.S. federally-recognized Tribe or Alaska Village
- Willing to possibly travel (fly on plane) alone
- Complete application packet

HOW TO APPLY:

- Applications OPEN Late January to Early February
- Application Components:
 - General Application
 - Creative Submission
 - 2 Letters of Recommendation
 - Health, Liability, Media Waivers & Forms
 - Parent & Student Contract

DETAILS:

- Informational Webinars will be held in February & March
- If accepted, there is no cost for participation.
- NAFWS will pay for travel for student to attend (airfare, mileage, luggage, food, lodging)

CONTACT:

Ashley Mueller, Education Coordinator
Email: amueller@nafws.org
Office Phone: 303-466-1725 Ext. 4

STAY UPDATED
ON OUR SOCIALS
FOR MORE DETAILS &
APPLICATION
OPENING!

Website: nafws.org/youth-early-professional/summer-youth-practicum/