

Native American Fish & Wildlife Society Tribal Training on Chronic Wasting Disease & Wildlife Movement Modeling

Co-hosted by the Spokane Tribe

July 24th, 2025

Spokane Tribe Resort & Casino

Spokane, Washington

Coordinators: Shailyn Wiechman, NAFWS Wildlife Connectivity Coordinator, smiller@nafws.org
Emily Hagler, Tribal Mapping Analyst, ehagler@nafws.org

Thursday, July 24th, 2025 – Chief Enoch Room

7:30am

Breakfast provided

8:00 am

Welcome & Introductions

*Shailyn Wiechman, Wildlife Connectivity Coordinator, NAFWS
Emily Hagler, Tribal Mapping Analyst, NAFWS*

8:00am – 12:00pm

Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD)

State of Science: Chronic Wasting Disease (virtual)

- Scott J. Chiavacci, Ph.D, Ecologist, U.S. Geological Survey

Overview of Tribal CWD Surveillance & Management Plans

- Spokane Tribe of Indians

Funding Opportunities for CWD and Biological Disease Threats

-

Roundtable Discussion on CWD Prevalence on Tribal Lands

- All

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Lunch Provided

Afternoon Workshop

Mapping Workshop

1:00pm – 4:00pm

-Overview of movement modeling and population ecology introduction

-Tools available in Arc GIS to visualize and analyze animal movement data

- Migration Mapper: Using the application to run movement models on migratory populations of ungulates.